

Scholarship Application

Eligibility

JFAR Scholarships are available to Arkansas Jewish families of children ages 0-18, who need financial assistance with:

- Religious School Tuition
- Jewish Childcare/Preschool Tuition
- Yeshiva/Jewish Day School Tuition
- Tutoring for a Bar or Bat Mitzvah

Proof of enrollment is required to receive a scholarship for the first three and a written letter from the tutor (or contract) required for aid with tutoring.

* These scholarships are for the above items only. Please note Jewish camp scholarships will follow the same procedure of going through JCRS as in the past.. Young adults interested in financial assistance traveling to Israel should apply for JFAR's Thalheimer Israel Scholarships.

Guidelines

- All applicants must submit a fully completed application that will be reviewed by JFAR's Scholarship Committee. All applications, information on applications, and scholarship aid will be kept strictly confidential.
- In the case of scholarships for Congregation B'nai Israel's religious school, the Rabbi at the congregation will also be consulted so that aid from JFAR and from the Temple can be coordinated.
- You may be asked to provide additional information beyond the information provided on the application. Consideration for aid is contingent upon being willing to answer additional questions to clarify information, if necessary.
- Aid is need-based and provided on a rolling basis beginning in July, the beginning of JFAR's fiscal year. As the fiscal year progresses, the pool of funds will diminish and may be used entirely. Families are encouraged, therefore, to apply as soon as possible.
- Please e-mail completed applications to treasurer@jewisharkansas.org or mail to:
